APOORVA SINGH

Currently pursuing PGDM in Finance and Valuation at ACCMAN Institute of Management, I experience a learning environment that is inclusive, respectful and safe for female students. The Institute promotes equal opportunities, open dialogue and a strong support system that encourages academic and personal growth. Faculty members are approachable and supportive, providing guidance that builds both confidence and competence. With industry-oriented learning, interactive sessions and a campus culture that values dignity and well-being, ACCMAN has strengthened my professional readiness while ensuring a secure and empowering educational experience.

ANSHUL KHANDELWAL

My PGDM journey at ACCMAN Institute of Management has been academically enriching and strongly industry-oriented. The curriculum has equipped me with practical financial competencies such as financial modelling, valuation frameworks, risk management and analytical finance. The Institute offers valuable exposure through corporate interactions, expert-led workshops and industry sessions. Faculty members are highly supportive and focus on conceptual clarity with real-world applications. Overall, ACCMAN's industry-driven pedagogy has significantly enhanced my financial knowledge and professional readiness.

AYUSH KUSHWAH

Studying at ACCMAN Institute of Management has been a defining phase of my professional development. The program combines academic rigour with experiential learning through case-based pedagogy, advanced valuation and financial modelling, and live projects, including industry exposure with Chandigarh Airport. Regular engagement with faculty mentors and collaborative peer learning have sharpened my analytical depth and strategic thinking. ACCMAN's emphasis on real-world application and disciplined problem-solving has equipped me with the confidence and competence required for leadership roles in high-impact finance domains.

HEMA KUMARI

ACCMAN Institute of Management has played a transformative role in shaping my academic and professional journey. The institute offers a perfect blend of theoretical knowledge and practical exposure, helping students develop strong analytical and leadership skills. The faculty members are highly experienced, supportive and always approachable, making learning both engaging and impactful. Regular industry interactions, case-based learning and skill-focused training have boosted my confidence and career readiness. ACCMAN's disciplined environment and student-centric approach truly prepare students to face real-world business challenges with clarity and competence.

ROHIT AHIR

Studying PGDM-X at ACCMAN Institute of Management has been an enriching learning journey. The institute focuses not only on theoretical concepts but also on their practical application through case studies, presentations and expert sessions. Industry professionals regularly interact with students, sharing real corporate experiences that enhance our understanding of business dynamics. The learning environment is disciplined, professional and growth-oriented. ACCMAN has helped me improve my communication skills, decision-making ability, and industry readiness. This program is ideal for students who want hands-on exposure and a strong foundation in management education.

It was almost a decade ago in 2006 that I joined ACCMAN and started my management education journey, which shaped my career. ACCMAN has not just helped me to learn the key skills for excelling in a corporate world but also taught me the importance of team spirit and leadership. I hope that in the silent dreams, that one day made me join ACCMAN, others too will find theirs.
